rediscover Redfern

The $20 million upgrade of Redfern Street is now complete and the new face of Redfern is emerging.

On Redfern Street we have installed new smart poles, new lighting, new pavers and trees - creating a much more pedestrian-friendly environment!

The upgrade is just one part of the City of Sydney's plans to revitalise Redfern that include the redevelopment of Redfern Park and Oval, environmental programs, more park upgrades and youth services.

I invite everyone to see the changes to Redfern Park and the renewed Redfern and Regent Street, where shops are open for business.

REDFERN STREET OPEN FOR BUSINESS!

The City of Sydney has upgraded Redfern Street as part of a $50 million investment to revitalise the Redfern area. Redfern is back - restored to its rightful place as a beautiful and historic inner-city village.

REDFERN - A LITTLE HISTORY

The traditional working class suburb of Redfern is home to one of Sydney's most culturally, ethnically and economically diverse communities. Redfern is also the traditional home of the South Sydney Rabbitohs and Redfern Station is a major hub for Sydney's rail network. And of course Redfern has a long and proud Indigenous heritage.

IMPROVEMENTS AT A GLANCE

The Redfern Street Upgrade is a key part of the City of Sydney's plan to revitalise Redfern for the benefit of the local community. The upgrade includes:

- new paving with wider footpaths
- more trees
- new street furniture and lighting
- a 40km/h traffic limit
- a safe environment for pedestrians and cyclists
- the new Jack Floyd Reserve on the corner of Redfern and Regent Streets

REDFERN SHOPPING

Redfern's main retail area lies along Redfern Street starting from Chalmers Street, and continuing all the way to Regent Street. There are more than 100 retail businesses located here, both new and old, with all the usual village shops - takeaway food, delicatessen, bakery, bank, post office, hardware and newsagents, as well as groceries and fruit & veg.

Redfern also has a great range of factory outlets, cafes, discount fashion and electrical homewares stores, plus a surprising number of funky new art galleries. Along Regent Street you can also find some great 60s style retro furniture.

Whether you're after lunch, a great coffee, value fashion, electrical goods, a quirky piece of art or just a litre of milk, come down to Redfern! You'll be surprised at what you find.

You'll find the convenience of popping down to your local shops and the friendly faces of your local shopkeepers! And by supporting local business, you will be 'doing your bit' to create a bigger, brighter and more diverse retail strip in Redfern Street in the future.

This map and business listing will help find the right shop to meet your needs.

For more information on the Redfern Street upgrade please go to www.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au or contact the Redfern Neighbourhood Service Centre on 9265 9333.

Redfern is open and ready for business.
