

YOUTH ARTS & CULTURAL FESTIVAL

The smARTarts exhibition showcases the best of our local emerging artists aged 15-26 yrs. Come & meet the artists & pick up some affordable art at the opening on 7th April! All proceeds go to artists, no commissions charged. Below is a selection of some the artworks on display in 2010 from more than 30 artists.

Nicole Tattersall

Chip

Georgina Edwards

Jack Hume

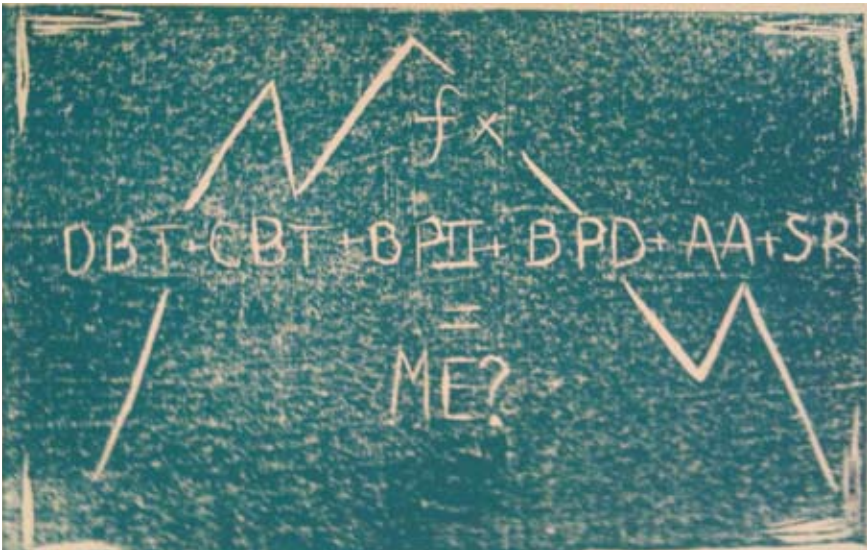

Viana Ho

Myf Doughty

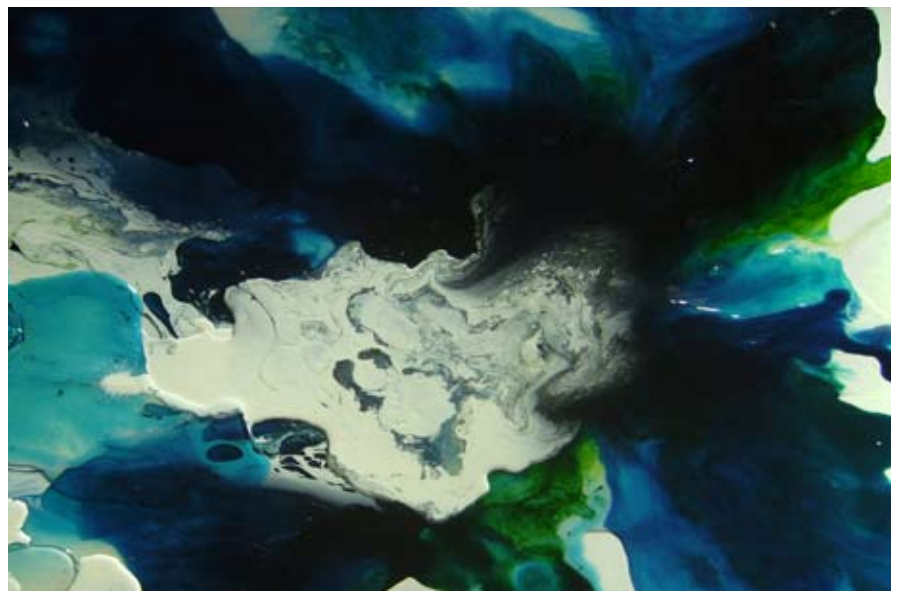

Amy German

Rebecca Lusty

Samuel Carslake

Cherisse Kofod

Dominic Proust

Jiahua He

Megan Dell

Olivia Welch

Louie Joyce

Mitchell Guerin

Mary-Helen Daly

LC Beats

Felicity Martin

Alia Di Paolo

Participating artists are eligible to win the following prizes:

Oxford Art Supplies $50 voucher

All smARTarts exhibitors are eligible to win a $50 Oxford Art Supplies voucher. One skilled exhibitor can look forward to buying some cool art materials – on us!!

Tom Bass Sculpture Studio School & smARTarts Festival Youth Scholarship 2010

The Tom Bass Sculpture Studio School offers Youth Scholarships to young people living in the City of Sydney. Successful participants have been invited to extend their studies beyond the initial term's attendance. This Year we are offering scholarships to participating visual artists in the smARTarts Festival.

VibeWire ArtCycle Exhibition: June 12 - July 11, 2010

You have the opportunity to show your work at the VibeWire ArtCycle exhibition space in Ultimo for one month, between June - July 2010.

Pine Street Creative Arts Centre & smARTarts Youth Art & Cultural Festival would like to thank the following organisations for their support:

SCULPTURE STUDIO SCHOOL
FOUNDED 1974

"Speak Out" Dual Diagnosis
Team