The smart ARTS festival street art tour will take you to the hottest street art sites across the inner west, through Chippendale, Newton & Enmore. During the bus tour, sight seers will have the pleasure of being guided by one of Sydney's most knowledgeable local street artists, Chris Tamm.

Chris Tamm is a Sydney based street artist and graphic designer. He has been curating and managing culture events in alternative spaces since 2000, including street art festivals in Adelaide and Sydney. He was also managing editor and art director of Entropy Magazine. He has relocated to Sydney from Adelaide and was previously curator at MAY'S (St Peters), an outdoor street art space. Chris is currently teaching art and cultural programs with children, youth and adults at Pine Street Creative Arts Centre.

Adelaide street art tour, 2009

Be there to discover the most cutting edge street art in the inner west, learn the history of this controversial medium as well as those who are paving the way for future street artists. At the conclusion of this eye opening and thought provoking tour, site seers return to Pine Street Gallery and settle in for a screening of Kaos in King Street, the latest film by local film maker, street artist & beat-boxer, LC Beats. Kaos in King Street is a claymation stop motion film about a day in the life of 4 of Sydney's pioneering street artists, Teazer, Pnash, Phibs and Mistery.
