Background

Concerns were raised at the Central Sydney Planning Committee briefing on 4 November 2021 regarding the stepped setback of the planning envelope above the podium where it adjoins Chifley Square, and potential visual and amenity impacts that this could cause.

A request was made to investigate increasing the setback of the planning envelope above the podium to Chifley Square from a 2 metre to a continuous 6 metre minimum setback, resulting in an increased setback for the tower element fronting Chifley Square.

In relation to the subject report, the Central Sydney Planning Committee, at their meeting of 11 November 2021, resolved to amend the planning proposal to reduce the maximum floor space ratio to 20.3:1 applying to the site, to reflect the amended planning envelope.

Consideration of proposed changes to the planning proposal

City staff analysed the impacts an increased setback would have on the proposed planning controls for the site. To accommodate the increase in setback the proposed changes would reduce the proposed maximum floor space ratio and gross floor area that could be achieved for the site as follows:

- maximum floor space ratio reduced by 0.1:1, from maximum 20.4:1 to 20.3:1; and
- maximum gross floor area reduced by approximately 500sqm, from 131,391sqm to approximately 130,891sqm.

The envelope changes were discussed at the 11 November 2021 meeting of the Central Sydney Planning Committee. It was considered that the changes to the envelope to accommodate the increased setback, and a related reduction in floor space, would balance the following:

- the benefits of improved public amenity outcomes for Chifley Square
- the need for suitable articulation provisions for the design excellence process
- providing for floor plate dimensions to deliver a premium office development.

The Central Sydney Planning Committee resolved to amend the planning proposal, reducing the floor space ratio by 0.1:1 to a maximum of 20.3:1 and amend the envelope to reflect the minimum 6 metre setback above podium to Chifley Square.

If the changes are supported by Council, the planning proposal at Attachment A, and the draft development control plan at Attachment B to the 8 November 2021 Committee report, would be amended prior to it being submitted to the Minister for Planning and Public Spaces with a request for Gateway Determination.
