

Approved grants 2023-24 – Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander collaboration fund

Recipient	Project description	Cash approved	Value-in-kind approved
Dan Munro (auspiced by Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council)	A program to empower First Nations men with the knowledge and skills to strengthen family bonds, be confident and nurturing fathers, and build a sense of belonging in a culturally safe space.	$42,100	Nil
Jodie Ann Choolburra	An annual showcase of First Nation storytelling told by First Nations young people at the Tom Mann Theatre, Surry Hills.	$16,500	Nil
Kinchela Boys Home Aboriginal Corporation	To develop a strategic communications plan to promote the services provided to the local Aboriginal community, while building the digital skill set of staff to strengthen their outreach.	$50,000	Nil
Mudgin-Gal Aboriginal Corporation	A ten week empowerment program for young Aboriginal girls attending Alexandria Park Community College, providing pathways to future planning, goal setting, self-confidence and conflict resolution practices.	$50,000	Nil
Redfern All Blacks Rugby League Football Club Incorporated	The creation of a yearbook for the club as a historical document, marking the 79th year of Redfern All Blacks.	$40,690	Nil
Redfern All Blacks Rugby League Football Club Incorporated (auspiced by Tribal Warrior Aboriginal Corporation)	A health and well-being program that provides cultural support and guidance to young Aboriginal players.	$50,000	Nil
Tribal Warrior Aboriginal Corporation	The project will provide specialist Indigenous mentoring, job ready training and cultural support to ex-offenders and	$40,000	Venue hire fee waiver to the value of $303

Recipient	Project description	Cash approved	Value-in-kind approved
	inmates in the Sydney Metro area, to reduce recidivism and increase their economic participation.
